CORPSES IN THE RIVER

Dreadful Evidences of China's War.

SUN YET SEN'S REVOLT

Von Waldersee Thinks the New Revolutionary Movement is Serious.

TUNGCHOW, August 20.—It is eighty miles by river from Tien-Tsin to this place, and now, two weeks after the allied forces marched through the signs of war and devastation are more apparent than they were at first, for posts have been stationed at intervals of a few miles, and the troops have completed the work of desolation and ruin. The villages that were only partially burned are now utterly destroyed, as they were found to be hiding places for snipers, who attacked single travelers and occasional small parties.

The American and English troops are daily supplied with chickens and eggs by the Chinese, who sell the chickens at $1 a dozen and eggs for $1 a hundred. The Chinese avoid Russian camps, as the Russians are even now killing them in the most brutal and cold-blooded manner, independent of age or sex.

It is impossible to go far on the river without floating bodies passing your boat, not the bodies of Boxers killed in action, but those of coolies killed for no other purpose than to satiate the blood-thirstiness and cruelty of some soldier. At this place, which is the river post for Peking, two coolies who had been towing a Russian boat, lay down to rest at the completion of their work, were seized by four Russian soldiers, thrown into the water and while swimming were used as targets and were shot to death.

The dogs and hogs along the river bank are living off human flesh and along the roads and rivers horrible sights are witnessed, and the stench of putrid flesh is fearful. None are buried and there are no vultures such as are found in most Oriental countries, consequently the dogs and hogs are the only scavengers. American soldiers are not eating Chinese pork at present, but Germans seem to be fond of it, many hogs being slain by a regiment that recently marched from Tien-Tsin to Peking.

SUN YET SEN'S REVOLT.
HONGKONG, Oct. 12.—The reformer, Sun Yat Sen, according to dispatches from Canton, has unfurled the reform flag in the most important town of Wei Chou, on East river. This act has given rise to considerable excitement in military circles in Canton, as it is believed the object of the reformers in raising their flag at Wei Chou is to denude Canton of troops, so that they can seize the city.

VON WALTERSEE'S IDEAS.
BERLIN, Oct. 12.—A dispatch received here today from Shanghai says a very serious view is taken at Field Marshal Count von Waldersee's headquarters in Tien-Tsin of the revolutionary movement.
At Tien-Tsin a false alarm on October 7th caused the Chinese officials to protest against any occupation of Chinese territory.

The Yang-tse Viceroy, the dispatch adds, openly affirm that they will oppose any advance of the Germans into Shantung province.

SQUALLY AT WEI-HAI-WEI.
LONDON, Oct. 13.—The Times has the following from Hongkong, dated yesterday: The situation in the Wei-hai prefecture is serious. In six districts the cities are in the hands of the rebels. If an outbreak should occur in Canton its suppression would be difficult.

MUTSUKITO TO KWANG-HSU.
LONDON, Oct. 13.—"It is reported here on good authority," says the Shanghai correspondent of the Times, wiring yesterday, "that the Emperor Mutsukito, in his reply to Emperor Kwang Hsu's appeal, counsels an immediate return to Peking, the expulsion of the reactionaries and the appointment of able and progressive statesmen."

THE SPOILS OF WAR.
TIEN-TSIN, Sept. 7.—Lured by the prospect of rich bargains and loot, large numbers of buyers are reaching Peking and Tien-Tsin from Shanghai and other cities in the South. Most of them are acting under cable instructions from dealers in America and Europe, the most exaggerated reports having been spread of the value of the plunder in the sacking of these two north of China cities.

In every by-street and in the environs of the camps soldiers of all the powers gather in little groups bartering the spoils of war. It is all done very quietly, and apparently is winked at by those in authority. These little extemporized bazaars are extremely picturesque. Japs, Americans, Frenchmen, Sikhs, Russians, soldiers of every flag, gather in eager groups, while civilian traders and curio-seekers haggle with them over prices in true Oriental fashion.

By far the richest loot procured was silver bullion, in size, as the helmet-shaped ingots are termed. These are worth about 70 taels each or bullion value of from $40 to $50 gold. Each bears the Imperial stamp on the under face, and they are the standard of value for the Chinese currency. It is understood that the American force, which captured the mint, secured about $300,000 in silver, which is being held intact.

Of arms there is a surfeit. An immense number of Manlicher and Mauser rifles and carbines fell into the hands of the allies and are a drag on the plunder bazaars. Most of them have never been fired, and they bring a small price. Five dollars Mexican, or $2.50 in gold, purchases a gun in excellent condition. Singles, or two-men Chinese guns—huge, unwieldy affairs, carrying a half-pound ball—are plentiful, and for the weapon collector this region is a mine of richness.

JOE LEITER AN EXPERT GAMBLER

Wins $25,000 From Notorious Pat Sheedy of New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—A cable to the World from Paris says: Joe Leiter of Chicago and Pat Sheedy of New York today concluded a poker game which will go into history. Leiter is $25,000 to the good. Today Sheedy, who is a professional gambler, is frank enough to say that young Leiter is just as good an amateur at cards as he is a professional. "I'm blue, of course," said Sheedy, "but I'm cheerful. I thought I had a cinch, but I was easy money."

The young millionaire and gambler were introduced by a mutual friend on the boulevard yesterday. There was some talk of cards and a recital of how young Leiter won $50,000 on a pair of sevens last winter in New York at the Waldorf-Astoria.

"I guess I can do you," remarked Sheedy. "Not on your life," responded Leiter with a laugh. The pair agreed to meet for blood in the evening.

"Say, Pat," said Leiter, "I'm going to bring $50,000."
"All right," laughed the New York gambler. "I'm going to draw $25,000.
That's enough to bring your $50,000 my way."

They met at the Club Vapucines in a private room. The play lasted eight hours uninterrupted. There were but six witnesses. For three hours everything came Sheedy's way. At midnight he was $15,000 ahead.

In the small hours his luck changed and he lost so rapidly that his nerve went all to pieces. Young Leiter, however, remained as cool as a cucumber, and on high on a broken flush or a pair of deuces until he had Sheedy on the run. Sheedy tried to recoup with several big bluffs, but his evident nervouness betrayed him every time. His biggest winning was a $750 pot, but young Leiter raked in a $3,000 pot with a pair of fours. He quit $25,000 ahead.

HEAD BLOWN OFF.

An Engine Explodes and Kills a Car Porter.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 12.—A special telegram from Mexico, Mo., to the Post-Dispatch says:

Engine 105, while hauling the eastbound passenger train on the St. Louis & San Francisco, at the usual speed, exploded at Curryville, about thirty miles east of this city, early this morning and was blown almost to atoms. John Mason, a colored porter of Roomhouse, Illinois, had his head cut off. Engineer Patrick Markey and Fireman Crawford Wheeler, both of St. Louis, Mo., were badly burned about the head and legs and Mrs. William Glascock of Hannibal, Mo., W. Eckler of Kansas City, Dr. J. J. Kincaid of Bowling Green, Mo., and a colored porter named Lindsey were more or less hurt. Fifty yards of the track was torn up and trains delayed for several hours. It is not known what caused the explosion.

Huntington's will is expected to come to probate without the usual contest.

COLLECTOR MERRILL TOO READY WITH HIS FISTS

JUDGE WILCOX waxed wrothy yesterday when summing up the testimony in the case of Loren W.
Merrill, a bill collector, charged with committing an assault and battery upon one Apau from whom he endeavored to collect a $21 bill on Saturday.

"A bill collector," said the Judge, "has no right to take the law into his own hands. If he cannot collect a bill he has recourse to the Second District Court of Honolulu where the debt can be sued for and collection made by due process of law."

"I know it is a common thing among Chinese to make physical demonstrations toward a debtor from whom they try to collect and cases come up in this court very often. This must be stopped."

"Why it is only a few weeks ago when you Mr. Merrill consulted me as to whether or not you would have any right to make a show of striking a man in order to intimidate him into paying his bill. You remember that do you not Mr. Merrill? You wanted to know if it would not be all right to go down to the waterfront just before steamers were about to leave and make a show as if to strike a debtor against whom you had a bill. Do you remember that consultation Mr. Merrill?"

Merrill hesitated about making a reply to the Judge's query. It was a stunner and took the wind out of his testimony.

"Oh, no, Judge," he said, "I didn't intend to put that into practice here. I had understood that in the States a collector could do that and I merely wanted to know if a collector had a right to do the same thing here."

On the strength of the testimony Merrill was fined $25 and costs.
"It is an outrageous case," continued
